Senior foreign attorney Mr. Dong Ho Yoo provides comprehensive legal advisory services in various areas, including cross-border trade, M&A and other foreign investments, international arbitration and general corporate matters.

He began his career as a journalist at The Korea Times, covering the National Assembly, the Ministry of Unification, and the Ministry of National Defense (2002–2004). He later worked as an attorney at CITILAW, LLC in Illinois, USA (2010–2012), and then as a legal counsel in the Overseas Legal Team at LG Electronics Inc. (2012–2013), where he handled global legal affairs. From 2014 to 2015, he served as a legal advisor at the KOTRA Hanoi Trade Office, supporting Korean companies entering the Vietnamese market.

As head of Jipyong's Hanoi office since 2013, Mr. Yoo has provided in-depth legal advisory services to global companies from various industries and financial institutions on local investments and general business operations. Additionally, he served as a legal advisor to the Embassy of the Republic of Korea in Vietnam (2021–2022), handling diverse diplomatic and legal issues. Since 2024, he has been acting as the legal advisor for the K-Startup Center in Hanoi, operated by the Korea SMEs and Startups Agency, supporting small and medium-sized enterprises in their entry and investment in Vietnam.
